

The 8 Commandments of Confirmation

1. Thou shall hand in a sermon report each week.
2. Thou shall say thy memory work to thy parents (verbatim) EVERY WEEK prior to coming to class.
3. Thou shall read, mark and inwardly digest the acolyte schedule so that the pastor is not in want of you on Sunday morning.
4. Thou shall treat confirmation (and it accompanying work) as a top priority; more important than school, sports or social life. This is an opportunity to leap forward in your relationship with God, so take this time seriously.
5. Thou shall be in Sunday School, Church and Confirmation every week.* There is no point in confirming someone who is not serious about worship, study and commitment to God and his Church. If you are not serious, then perhaps the time is not right for you to be in confirmation. That's okay, just let Pastor know and we will contact you next year to see if you are ready yet.

*I realize that people do become ill from time to time and that a rare schedule conflict could cause one to miss a Sunday. Families who have circumstances that will cause the student to miss worship and/or confirmation more than 2 or 3 times in the year should speak to pastor privately if you have not already done so.

6. Thou shall complete six (6) hours of service during the confirmation year.
7. Thou shall make an effort to come to know one another and bond as a whole class eliminating cliques and school groups.
8. Thou shall treat one another with mutual respect as we grow together in faith, neither discounting another's belief nor compromising one's own.
