Dorcas Guild Vision

To develop and encourage Christian fellowship and Charity among women members of Trinity Lutheran Church, Villa Park, Illinois.

Dorcas Guild Mission

To welcome and call on strangers and new members in the congregation whenever names are presented by the pastor.

To act as sponsor for the Altar Guild and be responsible for extra expenses incurred by it after notification of its plans.

To give financial aid, when possible, to missionary endeavors that require our assistance.

To cooperate with other societies within the church in the furtherance of Christian endeavor.

MEETINGS are held the first Tuesday of each month, except July and August and except where noted due to a holiday.

DUES of $5.00 are payable in September or when new members join throughout the year.

MEMBERSHIP requires active participation from all for the betterment of all.

Guild Policies

A prospective member must attend two out of three month's meetings to be eligible for membership.

Each member is to participate actively in meetings and projects, to feel free to express herself at meetings, and to contribute her ideas as well as time and talents in developing means of raising funds for Guild use.

Members who have not attended regularly will be called during June by the Membership Committee so that membership can be kept current.

It is the policy of the Guild to allocate memorials in the amount of $30 for a member of the guild, $25 for members of the immediate family (husband, child, and parents of a Guild member), and up to $50 (including tax and delivery charges) for gifts for hospitalized members.

It is the policy of the Guild to give a monetary gift to the Schlechte Scholarship Fund each year in honor of those students of our congregation who are actively pursuing a course of study in church related work. The amount of the gift is to be determined when the budget is adopted at the September meeting.

Each member is to serve on a devotional committee when called upon. She is to prepare devotions for that months meeting

Each member is to serve as hostess when called upon. The hostesses plan a dessert and coffee to be served at the meeting. They share duties and expenses.

If a member is unable to serve for either hostess or devotions, she is to make arrangements to trade with another member and advise the Secretary of the trade.

It is the policy of the Guild to give a monetary gift to each full time church staff member at Christmas, the amount of which will be determined when the budget is adopted at the September meeting.

It is the policy of the Guild that all standing committee chairmen meet with their successors to explain the committee's duties no later than one month after officer installation.

The Treasurer's books shall be audited by June by a committee of two Guild members appointed by the President.

The Guild purchases the baptismal napkins used at each church baptism. The church office orders them when needed and bills the Guild.

It is the policy of the Guild to give a cross to a newborn child of a Guild member. The visiting chairman keeps a supply of these and reorders as necessary.

The Guild sponsors a Yearly Event with funds raised to support Charitable endeavors voted on by the Guild. There is no attempt to deliberately earn a profit on this event.

Committee Duties:

The President shall advise each committee head of that committee's duties:

The Executive Committee consists of the officers, past president and two other Guild members as appointed by the President. See constitution for duties.

Membership Chairman is to take attendance at each meeting, collect dues, and advise Guild members who are tardy with their dues payments. She also updates the membership list each June to keep it current and advises the President of the new membership list no later than August 1.

Visiting Chairman visits members of the Guild who are hospitalized or have had a new baby. She can do this at her own discretion, either at the hospital or at the member's home. See policy for gifts.

The Historian is in charge of maintaining and expanding records of the Guild's activities. She should take photographs of activities as well as keep fliers, newspaper articles, etc. The scrap book should be exhibited at least twice a year.

The Funeral Chairmen's duties are outlined in the policy section. It is recommended that there be at least two members to head this committee.

The Guild provides services and supplies for the upkeep of the church kitchen, as required by the Board of Parish Fellowship, as deemed reasonable by the Guild.

When asked by members of the congregation, the Guild will provide and/or serve food in Founders Hall after the funeral, to be coordinated with the Funeral Coordinator. The Guild will ask for a reimbursement of food bought by the Guild and a free will donation for the service.

Each member is to serve as hostess when called upon. The hostesses plan a dessert and coffee to be served at the meeting. They share duties and expenses.
